George Turnipseed,

I am not a Turnipseed researcher. I have accumulated some data on the early immigrants (families) of the old Orangeburgh District and run a small listserv of serious researchers (about 50) in that area. You are welcome to join. We transmit about 3 to 5 messages per day so you may want to consider that on AOL. If you would like to share research and participate, please provide us a little more info about your research; such as SC families researching, time frame, snail-mail address, etc. The following is some info I have in my data base for your comment:

This is NOT an original source document! Do NOT quote this source as authority for any information on this family. Much of the information has NOT been verified for accuracy. It is provided as a helpful aide in YOUR personal research on this individual family only.

1. Beat Rebsamen born 14 May 1720, Turbenthal, Canton Zurich, Switzerland, married Margaret Kinsler, born AFT 1738, Saxe-Gotha, Craven County, South Carolina, (daughter of Hans Conrad Kuntzler and Dorothea Gredig). Beat died 24 Oct 1782, Camden District, South Carolina. Beat Rebsamen used many different names, some are; Peter Batrebsome, Pott Turnipseed, Pottley Turnipseed, Peat Reibsamen, Beat Rebsome, and Beat Reibensamen. Beat immigrated to South Carolina along with his brother, Hans Rebsamen. They were both single when they left Switzerland, and arrived in America in 1751. On Thursday, 6 August 1751, Peter Batrebsome petitioned the Governor and Council for fifty acres of land in Saxe Gotha, or "as near as possible". He stated that he was a foreign Protestant, and had arrived on the Neptune, Captain Jeed, commanding. The land was laid out north of the forks of Cedar Creek and Broad River. The plat was certified on 1 May 1752, by John Pearson, D.S. Land Grant: Beat Rebsome 50 acres on Broad River 6 April 1753. This shows that Beat was single at this time, in the 1750's single people received only 50 acres of land. In accordance with a precept dated 6 March 1764, Peot Reapson had a tract of 1100 acres of land surveyed for him on Little River. Bound on all side by vacant land. John Pearson certified the plat on 15 March 1764. Peter Repson had 200 acres laid off for him on a branch of Mill Creek, Little River.

Bound South West on land laid out for John Marpole, bound on all other sides by vacant land. Richard Winn, D.S. certified the plat on 25 November 1767. Pott Rapeson had 150 acres of land laid off for him on Kennerly Branch. Bound on all sides by vacant land. R. Humphries certified the plat on 16 May 1768. During the Revolutionary War he furnished supplies for the Whigs and was paid 13 pounds, 8 shillings, 8 pence sterling. Pott Turnipseed for service in the Revolution which I do not have a transcript of...The clerk made it out to Pott and later as Pottley but he signed it as Beat Reibsamen. When he made it over to Jacob Reibsamen for collection, in one place one of these took a pen and drew a mark thru Turnipseed and wrote underneath Reibensamen. Pott Turnipseed (Ripsamen) served in the Cherokee War under Col. Richard Richardson whose men were mainly from Camden District of Craven County and some men from the Western Area of Williamsburg County. Beat Rebsamen lived for thirty-five years on his land north of the junction of Cedar Creek and Broad River. He was active in the Regulator movement, 1767 to 1769, that had been formed as a vigilante organization to protect the settlers in the up-country from the depredation of outlaws so far from the courts and law in Charleston. He received the Regulator Pardon on 3

October 1771. Beat Rebsamen's Will signed 8 January 1781, probated 24 October 1782 in Camden District and marked "Peat Reapsamen of Cedar Creek on Broad River" by the clerk. The will is recorded in Will Book N1, Page 65, Probate Records, Apt 69, Package 2490, South Carolina Archives. Margaret: In 1790 Catherine was living in Camden District, Richland District, South Carolina. There was 1 male over 16 years, 3 males under 16 years, and 2 females.
